

Two Several
ADDRESSES
FROM THE
House of Peers,
Presented to Their
MAJESTIES,
On Thursday the 9th of October, 1690.

WITH
Their Majesties
MOST GRACIOUS
ANSWERS.

LONDON:

Printed for Tim. Goodwin at the Maiden-Head against St. Dunstan's Church
in Fleetstreet. 1690.

Two Several
ADDRESSES
FROM THE

House of Peers

Presented to Them

MAJESTIES

On Passing the Bill of 1801

WITH

Their Majesties

Most Gracious

ANSWERS

LONDON

Printed for Tm. Cadogan at the Minster
Head against St. Dunstons Church
in Fleetstreet. 1801.

An ADDRESS from the Lords Spiritual and Temporal to the Kings most Excellent Majesty.

Die Lunæ 6<sup>o</sup> Octobris 1690.

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal Assembled in Parliament, being extreamly sensible of the great Benefit and Advantage that Your Majesties late Expedition into Ireland hath procured to all Your Subjects in General, as likewise that the Success of your Majesties Arms in that Kingdom, is due, next to the Providence and Blessing of God Almighty, to Your Majesties Personal Valour and Conduct, do look upon it as our Duty to present our humble and hearty Thanks to Your Majesty for all those Signal Evidences You have given of Your extraordinary Affection for Your People, which hath carried Your Majesty in so many Occasions to Venture a Life that is so dear to us, and to Despise all Hazards to procure the Settlement of Your Kingdoms, the Peace and Quiet of Your Subjects, and the Establishment of our Religion. And as it is not possible but so much Bravery of Mind, such an Undaunted Courage, and a Heart so Exalted above any Apprehensions in the midst of all Dangers, must gain Your Majesty the Admiration and Reverence of all the World, and even of Your Enemies themselves, who have felt the Effects of so great Vertues; so we do not doubt but that such Extraordinary Qualities must Unite the Hearts of all Your People in such a Tender-ness, as well as Duty, for Your Royal Person, as is necessary for the finishing what Your Majesty hath so gloriously riously begun. And we shall continue our earnest Prayers to God, That he may ever protect and preserve Your Sacred Person, giving you a long and happy Reign over us, towards which we shall be ready to Contribute all the Support that is in our Power, or that can be expected from the most Dutiful, Faithful, and Obedient Subjects.

B

---

The Lord Chief Baron Reported His MAJESTIES Answer to the aforesaid Address, Viz.

That His Majesty took it very Kindly,
That they made him this Address, and
His Majesty Declared, that He would still continue the same Care for the Good of the Nation, and for the Defence of the Protestant Religion
as He had done.

( 3 )

---

A N
A D D R E S S
F R O M T H E
Lords Spiritual and Temporal
T O T H E
Q U E E N S
M O S T
Excellent Majesty.

---

Die Martis 7<sup>o</sup> Octob. 1690.

TH E Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament Assembled, being highly sensible of the Advantage the Nation hath received by the Eminent Resolution, as well as Prudence, Your Majesty hath shew'd in the Absence of the King, and in such Circumstances of Difficulty, as would have discomposed a Mind that had not been raised above them, as Your Majesty hath approved Yours to be by this undeniable Evidence, do think themselves obliged to present their most humble Acknowledgments for that Quiet and Peace which hath been preserved by Your Majesties prudent Administration against the Dangers threatned
by

by a Powerful Enemy; The remembrance of such Extraordinary Vertue, is that which must ever dwell in our Minds, and ingage us in Justice upon all Occasions to Express our Gratitude, as becometh Your Majesties most Dutiful Subjects.

The Lord Chief Baron Reported Her
MAJESTIES Answer to the aforefaid Address, Viz.

THAT Her Majesty said, That She was very glad that what She had done gave so good Satisfaction to their Lordships.

FINIS.

The House of Commons 1690

Ordered by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament Assembled That Sir
John Mordaunt, their Majesties Counsel and Speaker of the House of Commons, do now Print the Address of this House made to their Majesties, and their Majesties Answer thereto.

Jo. Browne Cleric. Parliament.

October 10. 1690.

By Virtue of the above said Order, I do appoint Timothy Goodwin to Print these two Addresses together with their Majesties Answers thereto; and that no other Person presume to Print the same.

R. Mordaunt, Speaker.

Die Fovis 9<sup>o</sup> Octobris 1690.

ORdered by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament Assembled, That Sir Robert Atkyns, Lord Chief Baron of Their Majesties Court of Exchequer, and Speaker of the House of Peers, Do give Order for Printing the Addresses of this House made this Day to Their Majesties, and Their Majesties Answers thereunto.

Jo. Browne Cleric' Parliamentor'.

---

October 10. 1690.

BY Virtue of the abovesaid Order, I do appoint Timothy Goodwin to Print these Two Addresses, together with Their Majesties Answers thereunto; and that no other Person Presume to Print the same.

R. Atkyns, Speaker.